NOTICE: This safety violation complaint shall constitute official notice to you that you have violated Georgia Uniform Traffic Law(s) and / or Georgia Ports Authority Safety Rules and Regulations. GPA facility users are required to obey all Georgia traffic laws and comply with GPA safety rules and regulations. Any additional, repeated or habitual traffic or safety violations or behaviors may cause you to lose access privileges to enter, remain upon or access any and all properties, terminals, facilities or installations owned or operated by the Georgia Ports Authority. This violation will be reviewed by GPA Police, and members of the GPA Safety Committee. When warranted, you may be required to attend mandatory safety training or other safety programs as a condition of continued access to GPA terminals, facilities or properties. Additional or repeated violations from this date will be tracked and accrued over the next 12 month period. Your failure to obey traffic and / or safety regulations can be sufficient cause to deny you further access to GPA properties as outlined above.
